In that event, please see if you can respond by the 13th. I appreciate the background. I'm on leave until the 9th, but have CC'd my staff.

Thanks

The client initially did not receive the complaint from the Commission. I understand that Donna called them on the 23rd, to see why they had not responded, and then provided them with a copy.

I'm showing the response was due back in September.
Any reason for the delay? I'm just trying to figure out what has transpired.

Thanks,

Jeff

I would gladly take 1/31, but we did mean to seek only until 1/13.

Did you mean 1/31? Thanks

Dear Jeff,

I spoke yesterday with Donna about the response in MUR 7123 – we represent Governor Inslee's nonfederal campaign – and sent the email below, only to receive her out-of-office message. If she has already gone on leave and is unable to respond, would you please let me know if the proposed 1/13 response date is agreeable? I'm copying her here, so there is no confusion.

Many thanks,

Donna, thanks for taking my call yesterday. As discussed, we represent Jay Inslee for Washington in MUR 7123. A copy of a Statement of Designation of Counsel form to that effect, executed by the committee's state law treasurer, is attached. Please confirm that we may respond to the complaint by the close of business Friday, January 31, 2017, and please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

-B.
